6:30 TOWN HALL SESSION: Discuss the 2018 direction of the SongFarmers movement, changes to how the next Gathering will be run, massive changes in the music world with Michael Johnathon, Rik Palieri, Josh Dunson, Raymond McLain, Loretta Sawyer, Ron Pen, Kari Estrin, Perry Brake, Skip Johns. Our special guest is the SongFarmers Chapter Leader from St. Johns Virgin Islands, Michael Beason, who will recount their experience during the brutal Hurricane Irma.

It's an old-fashioned “SongFarmers Ice Cream Social and Picking Party” at the big barn ... meet and mingle with your new friends and enjoy the company of musicians from across the country while Rik Palieri and Raymond McLain from the Kentucky Center for Traditional Music plays onstage with special friends ... followed by a community picking jam. Bring your sittin' chair and your instruments and get ready for some fun ... and home made ice cream!

HOW THE GATHERING of SONGFARMERS WORKS:

We have scheduled specific things like workshops and performance stages ... however ... we want you to feel free to put a group together under a tree and start your own picking and song circles. We are a community of “front porch” minded artists, and a “front porch” can be anywhere! PLEASE BE AWARE OF YOUR SURROUNDINGS ... if it's on the ground, pick it up :)
